Facts: (what happened?) The Plaintiff was improperly examined by a Psychiatrist and a Psychologist at Supreme Court in Brooklyn County without an Order of examination. The Plaintiff was then unlawfully and illegally committed from June 2016 to October 2016. On November ^{or about} 15th, 2016 the Plaintiff was once again unlawfully and illegally committed with an Order of examination, without no psychiatric examinations. As per CPL 730 there must be Orders of examination, the Plaintiff must have been examined where she was being held in custody and not in the Court house and the Plaintiff must have been examined a second time before being committed by different psychiatric examiners. Defendants allowed this to happen, failed to intercede on behalf of the Plaintiff and failed to put the Plaintiff on notice about her indictment hearings, leaving the Plaintiff unable to attend.
